BAD! BAD!! BAD!!!

Bad blood comes from bad digestion—bad stomach, bad liver, bad kidneys—attended with bad, foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, bad headaches, bad appetite and kindred symptoms. Bad as these all are, and serious as are the diseases to which they lead, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes to the relief and cure of all these by regulating and invigorating STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BOWELS, and putting all these organs in good order.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drugs; neither does it contain sugar or syrup, which are injurious to some stomachs. Without any of these it retains its pleasant taste and marvelous healing qualities in the most trying climate. Don't let a selfish medicine seller cheat you out of your health by giving you a substitute. He's only looking out for a larger profit, not for your good. Shun him. Honest, unsalable dealers recommend the "Golden Medical Discovery."

"That your remedies are not for the few, but for the many is evident, for I personally know of many scores of persons in this city who have been restored to health and strength by your Golden Medical Discovery. I know that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is most valuable in cases of derangement of the liver, stomach, kidneys, and all the organs of the body. I have known Dr. Pierce for twenty years, and he is a physician and man of sterling qualities, and he has in his Sanitarium a corps of specialists who are chosen because of their unusual knowledge and professional skill."

If suffering from any obstinate, lingering ailment, write to Dr. Pierce and get, free of charge, sound medical advice. He has the counsel and assistance of a large staff of expert specialists.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M.D., Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Paper-bound FREE on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for mailing only; or cloth-bound for $1.00. Address the Author, as above.

CAUSES OF HEART DISEASE.

"Bad whiskey, rheumatism, mental strain and high living are among the leading causes of heart disease," said Dr. Henry P. Loomis, of New York, when his attention was called to the report of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, which heads the death list with 510 cases of organic heart disease out of a total of 5,397 deaths, and puts Bright's disease fourth in the list.

"It is easier, however, to admit a tremendous increase in the number of deaths from heart disease than to point out any reason for the increase."

"Many cases of heart disease are directly traceable to mental strain and high living, the heart being indirectly affected through other organs."

"In nine cases out of ten—well, no, that's putting it too strongly, perhaps; I would say rather that the majority of the cases of heart disease which come under my notice are due to rheumatism in many forms."

"It is true, of course, that one may have heart disease and yet not be afflicted with rheumatism, and vice versa. Speaking generally, I would say that in the case of the rich, I believe that rich food and lack of proper exercise, excessive drinking and a persistent mental strain are the main causes for heart disease."

"The strenuous life plus mental anxiety is in the days almost irrevocably associated with these upper classes. I don't think, though, that there is any increase in drinking among the rich; in fact, I believe just the reverse; and the rich man has this in his favor—he at least can drink good liquor when he drinks at all."

"With the poorest classes it is different. The great army of mechanics, drivers and laborers who work out of doors are more or less a prey to heart disease, not only because of prolonged exposure, which fosters ills which in turn weaken the heart, but because of the drinking habit, which is often acquired in consequence of this exposure."

"I have known men who thought they must take from 10 to 15 drinks of whiskey a day to minimize the bad effect of exposure and who could hardly be persuaded to the contrary. Now, even if the whiskey they drank was of good quality, the result would be bad, very bad; but when a man continues, day after day, as many as one does to pour down his throat the most adulterated stuff in the market, his finish is not far off. His heart is bound to give out."

"I am heartily in favor of Bishop Potter's saloon plan to this extent: Give the poor, as well as the rich, man pure liquor. If he must and will drink, let him have a brand of whiskey that will do him the least harm."

"Worry, fret, hurry and rheumatism," is the way Dr. Darlington, of the health board, checked off the causes for heart disease."

"Don't run, and avoid rheumatism, are among the health recipes which ought to be first considered by the man or woman who wants his or her heart to keep on ticking normally for three-score and ten years or longer. It is safe to say that a person of temperate habits in eating and drinking, who takes six or eight hours' sleep out of the 24 and some exercise afoot in the open air every day, and who absolutely refuses to worry and fret over his business or anything else, will never die of heart disease."

Tried to Lynch Motorman.

A squad of extra police was summoned from a station in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn yesterday to rescue a policeman and the motorman of a surface car from an angry mob of 2,000 persons who were trying to punish the motorman for the death of a little boy. The child, Frederick von Gilder, aged four years, ran in front of the car as it was passing through Park Avenue, and was struck and instantly killed. Several women in the street and car fainting when they witnessed the accident. Hardly had the motorman, James McCauley, left the platform of his car when several men seized him with cries of "lynch him," threw him down, and jumped on him. The conductor took refuge in his car and locked both doors. McCauley struggled back to the car and reached a switch iron with which he knocked down several of his assailants. A policeman came to his rescue, but the mob attacked him, too, and the two men fought side by side, the policeman using his club and McCauley the switch iron. Word was sent to a near-by police station for help and when the police arrived they had to beat their way through the crowd to reach the two men. The body of the boy was then removed from under the car. When his mother, Mrs. Robert von Gilder saw the body, she fainted as she started down stairs, and fell headlong suffering injuries from which it was feared she might not recover.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand, or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." GIVE NATURE A CHANCE

BY USING

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the dandruff germ."

It destroys the tiny vegetable growth in the sebaceous glands of the scalp, after which the hair will grow as nature intended. Don't wait until it is too late, for chronic baldness is incurable. The microbe of dandruff and baldness makes the hair dull, brittle and lustreless. It fills the hair with dandruff and causes itching of the scalp. Later, it chokes the very life out of the hair and causes it to fall. Save it with NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE. Extraordinary results follow its use.

Read These Three Letters.

After typhoid fever my physician recommended Herpicide for my hair, which was falling. I used it a number of months and my hair is longer now than ever before, measuring more than five feet in length.

St. Paul, Minn. (Signed) MARIE A. MCINTYRE.

The top of my head was completely bald and fifty dollars worth of "Hair Growers" failed to benefit me. My photograph shows the result of a thorough treatment with your dandruff germ destroyer.

(Signed) CLARENCE HAMILTON.

At an early age my hair began to fall. I was almost bald when I was induced to try your valued remedy and now I have a fine head of hair.

Anniversary Celebration.

Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., celebrated their 66th anniversary last night at their hall on north Columbus street, when an interesting programme of exercises was rendered. Despite the inclement weather, the lodge room was filled to overflowing with the guests of the members. The guests of honor were Governor A. J. Montague, Mr. W. H. McNeill, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia; Grand Master of Virginia D. R. Stansbury, Mr. C. C. Carlin and Rev. J. A. Jeffers. During the evening Grand Master Montague presented Governor Montague with a beautiful bunch of roses in the name of the lodge.

Mr. James R. Mansfield, who was master of ceremonies, called the meeting to order and welcomed the visitors and friends of the lodge.

The speeches which followed, although in a measure impromptu, were pleasing features of the evening. That of Governor Montague being especially thrilling and greatly enjoyed. The Governor had long ago expressed a desire to visit the lodge and make an address. He was greeted with prolonged cheers as he came forward and his speech was punctuated with applause throughout. He delivered one of those gems for which he is noted, and his words were highly commended.

During the evening the Alexandria Ideal Musical Club discoursed fine selections of music, which were greatly appreciated by the audience.

The address of Mr. W. H. McNeill was listened to with close attention. His review of the aims and objects of Odd Fellowship were beautifully portrayed and he received frequent applause. The recitations of Mr. E. E. Kahn, of the Criterion Players of Washington, were greatly enjoyed. He was repeatedly encouraged.

The programme was as follows: Singing of the Odd Fellow's hymn by the assembly, invocation by Rev. Mr. Jeffers, selections by Alexandria Ideal Musical Club, under the direction of Mr. W. H. McNeill; solo, "Happy Days," by Mrs. Herman Friedlander; duet, "Led by the Voice of Jesus," by Miss Margaret Vierkorn and Mr. W. T. Wilkins; address by Mr. W. H. McNeill, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia; solo, "Tatters," by Dr. C. E. Outcalt; recitations by Mr. M. E. Kahn, of the Criterion Players of Washington D. C.; solo, "Sandalwood," by Mr. Richard Witt; duet, Mrs. M. E. Friedlander and Mr. E. E. Kahn; address, Gov. A. J. Montague; selections by Ideal Musical Club; mandolin solo, Mr. George L. Thompson; quartette, Misses Anna and Margaret Vierkorn and Messrs. C. E. Outcalt and W. T. Wilkins; solo, "Farewell to the King's Highway," Mr. Kenneth Ogden.

The musical feature of the programme was strikingly rendered.

After the exercises the members and their friends were entertained with refreshments in the banquet room below, where the delicacies of the season were spread on beautifully decorated tables, and a delightful hour was spent at the board. About three hundred people were present. The committee in charge of the celebration was composed of Mr. M. Spiro, chairman; Mr. James R. Mansfield, secretary; Mr. D. R. Stansbury, Mr. W. P. Henshaw and Mr. W. L. Martin.

Potomac Lodge is one of Alexandria's oldest and most honored institutions, and during its existence numbers of citizens who have attained prominence in the community and State have been among its members. Representative and prominent citizens are now, as has ever been the case, on its rolls and the lodge, in its serene and quiet life, is as vigorous as in the days of its youth.

Assigned to General Staff.

Maj. David Du B. Gaillard, Corps of Engineers, has been detailed by the President as a member of the general staff corps. Maj. Gaillard, as captain, served in the general staff from 1903 to 1904, when he relinquished his membership in the corps by reason of his promotion to the grade of major, there being no vacancy at that time in the corps for an officer of that grade. Maj. Gaillard is a nephew of the late Capt. R. W. Gaillard, of this city.

Suicide on Bridge.

A man named Wm. DeVan Tier committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid on the Aqueduct bridge last night during the prevalence of the storm. Several soldiers were crossing the bridge at the time and a brilliant flash of lightning revealed the man to them while in the act of throwing up his arm. He was taken to a hospital where he soon died. The deceased was 26 years old. He begged the soldiers not to tell his mother of his rash act.

The Market.

The market this morning was almighty attended by country people, owing to the heavy rain of last night. Those in attendance had a plentiful supply of green stuff, eggs and butter, while fish was in abundance. New kale sold at $1.50 per barrel and spinach at $2.50 per barrel. Eggs brought 18 cents a dozen. Chickens took a soar upward and sold from 65 cents to $1.00 a piece. Butter dropped to 25 and 30 cents a pound. Fish were held at usual prices.

Opera House.

The Willis Musical Comedy Company last night at the Opera House presented "Two Old Cronies" to a fair sized audience, notwithstanding the stormy weather. John B. Willis and James Leslie played the leading roles in good style. The comedy was excellently presented throughout and heartily applauded. Every specialty presented was of a refined nature and was above the average. The singing of Lily Adams was beautiful. Tonight a double bill will be presented, "Sweet Sixteen" and "Jolly Hooligan." The matinee this afternoon was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The company closes their engagement tonight, having given some of the best performances ever seen in this city.

Heavy Rain.

The cloudy and threatening weather of the past few days culminated early last night in a copious spring rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The electric display was vivid, the thunder at times heavy while the rain came down in torrents. The wind in the meantime changed from southeast to northwest, and there were some heavy flurries. Today the weather has been fair and spring-like. The first spring thunder storm is said to terminate the hibernation of the opibian creature; it is also believed that its advent is synchronous with the appearance of shad and herring in the river.

HEROIC RESCUES.

Five rescues, one of them the bravest seen in New York in many years, were made from the big six story tenement house 166 east One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street during a fire yesterday afternoon. Policeman Bowden, although badly burned, carried an unconscious woman on his back from the third to the sixth floor of the fire-escape, then got inside, made his way to the roof, crossed over to the adjoining house and brought the woman down to the street in safety. Hundreds of people witnessed the feat from the street and cheered the policeman's bravery.

The fire started in the apartment of John Lehman, on the second floor. Mrs. Lehman was out and Lehman was minding their two children. He and the children had all fallen asleep, when a neighbor, passing their apartment, noticed one of the beds on fire. She roused him, and he grabbed the children and took them to the street. Then he ran out to look for a policeman, and found Bowden. He brought him and two other policemen back to the house, and while the two policemen went up to the third floor Bowden and Lehman went in the latter's apartment to try and put out the fire. Both were badly burned about the face and hands, and Lehman rushed out to get medical assistance.

In the meantime the smoke had gone through the house, and the women and children of the 24 families living there were in a state of great excitement. Bowden heard cries for help and ran up to the third floor, where he found Mrs. Albert Johnson lying unconscious on the floor in the front apartment. He picked her up, threw her over his shoulder and started down stairs, but was driven back by the flames and smoke. Then he ran up to look for a policeman, and found Bowden. He brought him and two other policemen back to the house, and while the two policemen went up to the third floor Bowden and Lehman went in the latter's apartment to try and put out the fire. Both were badly burned about the face and hands, and Lehman rushed out to get medical assistance.

Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Benningville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torrid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sell and guarantee them at 50c a bottle.

 AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. In value is worth double the price. Ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.
 Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases threatened attack of pneumonia may be ward off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. O'neighten & Co.
